Joseph Wallace returned Tuesday to his old home and the family he distrusted twenty years ago this month.
The Wallace home is near Lima, Marshall County.

While plowing in his tobacco patch a short distance from his home one July day, ten years ago, a young girl of the neighborhood accosted him and said, "If I tell him what you have done to me, he will kill me." He said, "Well, if you will tell me what he has done to you, I will tell him." She agreed, and he agreed to tell her. Then she ran through the bushes, and after a short while of laborious travel in the woods she came out to him. He said, "Here is what you want to know. Your husband is a scoundrel, and he has been bad, for friends of his old friends and acquaintances are still around him, leaving his adopted home behind. With tears he greeted his deserted wife at the old home and attributed the money among his wife and several children, now grown. But his wife met him with a coldness he had not expected, and would not speak to him. She refused him shelter,

Hickmanites Get Their First View of Night Riders, Thursday.

The first Night Riders to visit this city passed through last Thursday night, coming in at the east line and going out at the west. The Riders made no demonstration whatever here but rode quietly through, and were seen by only a few people who were still up at mid-night.
From all indications they were a detachment of the band which visited P. C. Ward, at Walnut Log, on the Lake south of this city, as he had some early morning callers a few hours later. Mr. Ward was informed by the Riders that he must stop fishing, or rather selling fish to any one except in his local trade. No harm was done to Mr. Ward, or his property, but he was given to understand in some terms that these demands must be met.

All of the Riders wore masks and had their identity carefully concealed so as to prevent the slightest recognition.

and he went to the homes of neighbors where he remained for a few days, and then went back to the woman he now calls his wife.

There are many persons now residing in Western Kentucky who remember the sensation the strange entertainment caused.

CASHIER SHORT ONE MILLION

Allegheny National Official Placed Under Arrest.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—William Montgomery, known to all as "Dilly," cashier of the Allegheny National Bank, the most important financial institution in a part of the state point of any in the city, was arrested in the bank late this afternoon, charged with embezzling an enormous sum of money from the bank. It is not known just how much and much was taken at least. It is believed that it will be more than that, probably more to $1,000,000.

The best information that Montgomery will share is that he was given a sum from Harry Reiter, the famous banker of the Farmers' National Bank, who with former Auditor James V. Russell had a retainer of over $1,000.

Reiter and Young are in jail and last night Reiter is alleged to have stated that part of the enormous sum of money he took from the Farmers' National Bank had gone as fees to Montgomery to help make up his shortage. A hurried examination of Montgomery's books was made, and it was soon discovered that he had taken $1,000,000 at least. A warrant was issued out for Montgomery's arrest.

COTTON IS FIRM AND HIGHER

Nat Advance of 20 Points, 30,000 Bales Sold at Liverpool.

Mumbai, India.—The sale of 20,000 bales of spot cotton in Liverpool was a vivid fact in yesterday's cotton market, which created a sentiment that resulted in a gross advance of 20 points. If spinners want cotton so badly, thought the traders, we can afford to buy. Accumulation of moderate long lines and the basis covering up of shorts was there for the moment. The cotton, coming in in the afternoon, ran the market up to almost dizzy heights, with July selling at 30s, a rally of 91 points from the low point of last week, when there shared in the rise, and the whole list ended with a net gain of 19 to 20 points. To see end the bullish influence of demand for cotton there came crop report not of the most favorable character.

The origin of the spot market is clear. It comes from India, but the reaction of its sudden arising in the face of the most adverse trade reports of a half decade, is somewhat puzzling in mystery.

CLEVELAND'S DIET LIGHT.

Eats Half an Egg Each Meal While Doctor Battle.

Cleveland, Ohio.—Grover Cleveland's physicians are battling with the problem of keeping their patient sufficiently nourished to sustain life. The expatriate rested comfortably today, but has an extreme fondness in the cause of an easygoing diet. He has a small appetite, and when it comes on at his meals, the doctor advises him to eat a small quantity of milk. His condition now is such that it is difficult for him to retain this light diet, to which he does not take kindly.

The official statements issued from the latest news conference were as follows: "We have the evidence of having been edited before being handed out."

TEXAS RICE CROP REDUCED

Estimate That Cultivation Will Fall Short 50,000 Acres.

Galveston, Tex.—Reports from the rice-growing section of the State show that the production has been cut down nearly 50,000 acres this season. The fight resulting from the canal companies trying to force the rice growers to pay extra for water, the field is responsible for the decline. In this year's crop from 250,000 acres last year to between 200,000 and 250,000 acres this year.

It is likely that bad conditions will still further reduce the crop. Some of the canal companies have been forced out of business entirely. In the sections where wells are used to irrigate, the acreage has been increased, but not sufficiently to make up the losses of the canal reductions. The reports say the crop is doing nicely so far.

DEFINES DIVINE HEALERS.

Georgia Jurist Says Faith Practitioners Are Not Doctors.

Atlanta, Ga.—In the meeting of the statutes in Georgia, "divine healing" is not the practice of medicine, and can who practices it is not required to take out a license to practice medicine.

This is the interpretation of the law given by the Board of Appeals of the State through Judge Hill. The case was appealed from Franklin, Ga., where a Dr. Bennett was arrested, charged with practicing medicine without a license. Bennett was discharged.

Judge Hill, in his decision, said:

"These matters lie within the domain of the supernatural. Practical legislation has nothing to do with them. If they are part of a man's faith, the right of enjoyment cannot be abridged or taken away by legislation."

BOY SLASHES FIVE

TWO VICTIMS OF CRAZED YOUTH ARE DYING.

CHILD IS SAVED BY HER MOTHER

Tragedy Occurs in a Barber Shop
In New York Va-Vidette Blashes With Razor.

New York.—Suddenly crazed early Wednesday, 16-year-old Amelio Tanta jumped up from his chair in the barber shop on Avenue Perez, seized a knife and made a desperate attempt to slash the six other occupants of the place.

Two of his victims are in the hospital dying. Three others will live and one, a 4-year-old child, was saved by his mother.

The front of the store served as a sleeping apartment for Tanta and three other men, including Stefano Ia, Joseph Macra and Nicola Sperito.

One Man Dies to Death.

Tanta made a fierce lunge at Ia Sperito's neck and an instant later slashed Stefano's face. Both tumbled out of their cots, and the third man, Macra, fled for the door. Galdano had cut his own gas pipe at the front door.

Tanta tried to hold the mad youth, but the boy bit his nose and with one blow gained the inner bedroom. He inflicted a deep stab on the neck of Ia Sperito, his employer, and was just about to stab the latter's 4-year-old boy, Angelo, when the child's mother came to his rescue.

He then turned his attention to the victim.

White Dies.—With every possible means in his power, he sought his mother's assistance. If not already one, he will still apply for blanks and full information upon request.

"Spirit" Letters Found.

Bloomington, Ill.—A bunch of so-called "spirit" letters, which the medium in the Crumbaugh case was alleged to have sent to deceased with the intent of influencing dispositions of his wealth, were found in the pocket of the dead man.

The front of the store served as a sleeping apartment for Tanta and three other men, including Stefano Ia, Joseph Macra and Nicola Sperito.

One Man Dies to Death.

Tanta made a fierce lunge at Ia Sperito's neck and an instant later slashed Stefano's face. Both tumbled out of their cots, and the third man, Macra, fled near Fulton, visited her brother, Price Henry, and family Sunday.

Miss Lottie Weaver will stay with Mrs. Henry this week.

Last week an accident happened in Paducah that has a little tinge of the supernatural. A deputy jailer under Wade Brown, formerly Deputy United States Marshal, but now jailer at Paducah, was guarding some prisoners who were doing some work on the streets of that city. A revolver dropped from his pocket while he was bending over and was accidentally discharged, the bullet penetrating his breast and going entirely through his body.
This is the same revolver that Mr.
Brown used when a young man was accidentally killed in the bottom, and Mr. Brown has returned it to his brother, the owner.

Other : Folks' : Business

Misses Elizabeth and Mahel Wilson entertained the Bachelor Girls at the Club Monday evening in honor of their visitor, Miss Helen Murphy. Progressive Games was played, at which there were five tables. Comical little jumping Jack skeletons were presented the guests as souvenirs. Music and singing by Misses Wilson and Murphy was much enjoyed. Misses Louise Atwood, Victoria Bondurant, and Mrs.
Bess Boogher were guests. Brook cream, angel food and mint were served.

Last Friday evening, Misses Ivey and Bettie DeBow entertained the Bachelor Girls and I. T. Club and a few members at the J. U. S. Club.
A Flower Contest, in which much interest was shown, was an attractive feature of the evening. Music and singing by Miss Helen Murphy, of Vinton, Iowa, was much enjoyed.
Refreshments of strawberry cream and cake were served.

Children's Day.

Sunday is Children's Day at the Methodist church in this city, a special and very interesting program has been arranged, and it is recommended that all parents, members of the church and friends be present.

The service begins promptly at 11 o'clock, and lasts until day school at 10 a. m. Make your arrangements to attend, so you will encourage the children.

The steamer J. S. Ian an exception out of this city Wednesday night. Only a small boat was on the trip. The J. S. Ian seems to have an unwatered and unperfumed home, which keeps a great sample from going to these trips. It is well to bear in mind that the refreshments that are at any town is exactly what the citizens of the town make it.
It is probable that this boat will make her last excursion trip to Hickman for awhile, at least.

Ernest Ellendorf, one of the six men indicted for the Bandana band-robbery, surrendered to Police Chief James Collins at Paducah, and on default of $1,000 bail was taken up. Ellendorf is alleged to have planned the robbery. Several years ago he was convicted, along with "Squint" Wing, a notorious Cincinnati crook, of blowing a safe in Livington county.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bradley entertained about forty of their friends at their home on Saturday evening last. Pinch, raffles and other games were played, and refreshments served at the usual hour.
The home was beautifully decorated with flowers. All present declared it was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

Where the Revival is Now in Progress

The revival at the Methodist church is growing in interest at every service. The attendance has been good. Services will continue through the week, beginning at 7:45 p. m. The Rev. W. C. Waters, of Trenton, Tenn., will arrive in the city next Monday, and will be the preacher. There will be two services each day after this week. It will be remembered that Rev. W. C.
Waters was for many years pastor of the Methodist church here, and the announcement of his coming will be received with delight by his many friends.

The ladies of the Brownsville Baptist church will give an ice cream and strawberry supper at that place Wednesday night, May 20th.

The river is falling, and without another general rain should continue to go down rapidly. The high water mark at Cairo for the present rise is 43.5.

Union met on Saturday 2d, at Sylvan with Pres. W. B. McGehee.

After the roll call, we were sum to our list and in far order of busi-of the report on wheat the fact that wheat will be $1.00 at Westland every time in this that the secretary will be the millions, speeded us, so we may not do so the speakers as there were three speaking in order, the principal ones.

B. Threlkeld, was Tommies, Loyal G. Clark, with perhaps from J. C. Mathews.

Our price was at when sold at $1.00 while others, that were at $1.00 was a bad day down. It was a fact we did not have all leading farmers in our co-op, so cooperation was our prime, $1.00 so Mr. Toombs showed all have been won over. The selves were almost lost as the result of Stonewall Hill Run and General Chickamauga.

Elect Teachers.

The Hickman College School Board held their annual election of teachers last Friday night. All members of the board were present and the following teachers were re-elected to teach at the college next term:

Prof. B. F. Gabby, principal.
Miss Virginia Luton.
Miss Anna Outten.
Miss Icy Hale.
Miss Imogene Moore.
Miss Mildred Ramage?
Miss Bessie Bruer.
Miss Mattie Debow.

One more teacher is to be elected to complete the crops of teachers. Miss Annie Sharpen, who has been teaching in this school for something like twenty years, was an applicant for her old place but for some reason was not re-elected. The vote for Miss Sharpen stood two for and seven against. It is probable that Miss Sharpen's application will be re-considered.

The selection of teachers so far as has been made will certainly meet the hearty approval of all the parents of this district. They have all worked hard to make our school one of the best in the state and have succeeded admirably well.

Road to be Re-opened.

The county court of Mississippi county has ordered the old road leading to the ferry landing through the southern part of that county and terminating opposite Hickman surveyed and opened as soon as the water goes down.

It will be remembered that this road was fenced up by Mr. Lewis in the early part of this year, thus compelling people wanting to come to Hickman to go to Dorena, two miles lower down the river and wait to meet the ferry boat. Mr. Lewis fenced the old road because the land belonged to him and because a competitive ferry line was getting a lot of his business and using his ground as a landing place. Other legal points involving the issuance of a license followed and Lewis got out of the business, leaving the field clear to G. L. Carpenter, so long as he did not make a terminal of the Lewis land.

Citizens in the south part of the country, who do all their trading at Hickman, made a protest against the fencing up of the old road, with the result as stated above.

J. H. Dodds, one of Hickman's oldest and most honored citizens and one of the Courier's good friends, made us a pleasant call Thursday. Mr. Dodds is now in his 88th year, and has a memory rich in unrecorded history—and proverbs in a most entertaining manner many odd facts and quaint customs of the early days—the beauty and simplicity of which will be forever lost with the passing of the old man. Mr. Dodds' vote for president was cast for Harry Clay, but was lost, of course.

In the Fulton police court Monday Frank Cooley, a Cairo whiskey dealer, was convicted of boot-legging and fined $100 and ten days' imprisonment. He appealed the case to circuit court. There are several other similar charges against Cooley and it was in proof that he had brought or had shipped to him at Fulton 90 gallons of whiskey during the past three months.

BORAX IN THE DAIRY

A Matter of Profitable Interest to the Farmer and Dairymen

The problem of keeping sweet all the utensils used in connection with milk and cream sealing, and butter making, has been a serious one with the farmer.

He has come to realize fully that the slightest taint or hint of staleness left in a utensil or cream may ruin a whole outfit that the taint which is left is in the pores, having which grow and multiply in milk or butter, producing disastrous results.

The farmer has learned that hot water wont rinse away the greasy residue in dairy utensils.

He has learned that soap leaves a residue which is hard to remove any way, worse than the milk or cream residue, and it is little wonder that there has been a constant clamor for a dairy cleanser and answerer that will meet modern requirements.

A few of the largest creamery es tablishments have called experts into conference on this question and have with this question and up to a prod of nature, which exactly fits the bill—horns.

Scientists have long known borax as a cleaner, a sweetener and an antiseptic deserves of both in and green growth. Everything that is harm to man, provides and preserves them green, sweetening and purity, removing the dairymen and dairy household of dredging and of needles work and worry.

Its cheapness and value should give it first place in the nomination of every dairy.

The cow's udder is kept in a clean, bright condition by washing it with borax and water, a tattoo-poultice to two or three of water.

This prevents roughness and sore ness or cracking test, which make milking time a dread to the cow and a worry to the milker.
